

Time to Shine

Underscore = sopranos

Bold = altos

Blue = men

Italics = everyone

The sun burns across the sky line,
A new day is starting again
But before all the crowds become too loud
I stop to take a moment
To breathe in the morning's embrace
Clear skies, fresh eyes, surprises wait for me]

[Prechorus]

Oh Oh and I won't waste this chance to meet my destiny and dance]

Oh Oh Make the most of every moment, brother, sister

Everybody! <<<

[Chorus]

It's written all across the sky

Perfect art in a new sunrise →

And now's the time to shine

It melts the dew and warms the heart

The sun is up for a brand new start →

And now's the time to | shine

Yes now's the time to | shine (x2 after bridge)

Each morning I wake up believing
That this day is the start of the rest of my life→
The time is now to turn it all around
I wonder what it would be like
If we cared for others like ourselves
In unity there is more to life than me

Pre-chorus

Chorus

[Bridge]

One man sees a treasure in another brother's mess
Find the gold within the heart next door
To bring out each other's best <<<

Chorus with echoes [now it's time to shine]

Shine! Everybody!

Shine! Don't you know that now's the time to shine

Shine! Everybody!

Shine! Don't you know that now's the time to shine

Yes now's the time to shine

Oh yes now's the time to shine
